FORT WAYNE BATTERIES GO TO FRANCE

INDIANA DRAWN ON FOR REGIMENT OF FIELD ARTILLERY

Batteries B and D Will Form Part of Division War Department Has Made Plans for Sending Abroad.

TIME OF DEPARTURE NOT GIVEN OUT

That the members of Battery B and Battery D, of Fort Wayne, will at an early day see service in France is indicated by the dispatches from Washington announcing that Indiana is to furnish the regiment of field artillery in a full division that is to be formed of national guard units representing twenty-six states. Battery D has been in camp at Indianapolis several weeks, but Battery B left for camp only a week ago Sunday. Both units are made up largely of Fort Wayne men.

The war department says arrangements have been made for sending this division of the guards abroad.

PLANS ARE PERFECTED.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Plans for sending the first national guard troops to France have been perfected by the war department with the organization of a division which will include troops from twenty-six states and the District of Columbia.

The states from which the national guard troops are to be assembled are: Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, New York, Ohio, Georgia, Alabama, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Maryland, South Carolina, California, Missouri, Virginia, North Carolina, Kansas, Texas, Michigan, New Jersey, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Colorado, Oregon. The others come from the District of Columbia.

The commanding officer of the division will be Brig. Gen. W. A. Mann, of the regular army, now chief of the division of military affairs of the war department.

The Indiana guard unit included in the plan for division is the First Indiana field artillery.

Organization of Division.

The war department's announcement under the heading, "Composite National Guard Division," says:

"The following numerical designations have been assigned:

"Division headquarters troop to consist of the second separate troop, Louisiana cavalry.

"The division machine gun battalion, No. 149, to be composed of the third battalion, fourth Pennsylvania infantry.

"The infantry brigades to be numbered 83 and 84.

"The 83d infantry brigade to comprise the 50th machine gun battalion (composed of companies E, F, and G, second Wisconsin infantry), the 156th infantry (69th New York infantry) and the 166th infantry (Fourth Ohio infantry).

"The 84th infantry brigade to comprise the 151st machine gun battalion (companies B, C and F, second Georgia infantry), 167th infantry (Fourth Alabama infantry), and the 168th infantry (Third Iowa infantry).

"The artillery brigade to be numbered 67th, comprises: The 149th field artillery (First Illinois, first Indiana, field artillery), the 151st field artillery (First Minnesota, artillery), and the 11th trench motor battery to be composed of the third and fourth companies, Maryland coast artillery corps.

"The engineer regiment will be numbered 117th. The first battalion craft alarm was sounded and all movements of troops were halted until the hostile plane was out of sight. The weather continues warm and showery but does not interfere with the training.

Major General Siebert will soon review the troops of his command.

A case of trachoma, the dreaded and highly infectious eye disease, has been found in Fort Wayne. One of the men who presented himself for examination at the board in district three Monday afternoon was found suffering from this malady and consequently was rejected as ordered by the war department.

Examinations of men continued in the second and third districts Tuesday and it was thought that by evening the second district would have the required number of men who are fit for service in the country's conscription army.

Need Not Report.

Late Tuesday afternoon the board at district number two announced that those who had been called to appear before the board for Wednesday morning are excused and need not appear until further notice.

Examination of men has stopped in this district with the exception of those who have been transferred from other cities to Fort Wayne and those who were ordered to report up until Wednesday morning who have thus far failed to make their appearance.

Contrary to the conditions on Monday the fever of men to file exemption claims has risen again and Tuesday morning a large percentage of the men who were passed by the board sought to evade service by filing exemptions. However, most of the cases were men with families.

Appeal Board Meets.

Upon the call of the chairman the Second Indiana district conscription appeal board will convene in Fort Wayne Wednesday to pass judgment on the one thousand or more exemption claims which have been appealed from the local boards in nineteen counties.

The board will hold its sessions on the fifth floor of the Physician's Defense building. It is believed that it will require nearly two weeks' time in order to consider all the exemption claim appeals.

Unjust Criticism.

Unjust criticism has been wreaked upon the heads of the physicians on the examining boards in the city. Undoubtedly there have been many cases of this nature, but one was heard Tuesday morning which will be cited as an example of this sort of talk.

A man was examined in his district by a physician whom he knew personally and who heretofore has been his family physician. He was passed as physically fit, and upon leaving the room he used all the Sunday school words which he had ever committed to memory and denounced the action of the doctor. He said, or rather intimated that the doctor should have rejected him regardless of the fact that he did not find anything the matter.

It might be well to bear in mind by all concerned that these doctors are giving their services free and that they are duty bound to comply with their instructions that no favoritism is to be shown.

Changed Atmosphere.

A changed atmosphere has settled over the various examination rooms in the city, however. At the beginning of the work of examining men, the board seemed sombre and the men who appeared for examination had little to say.

Now everyone has put aside the sad cloak and donned himself in a robe of cheerfulness, and it is not an uncommon occurrence to hear peals of laughter from the examining rooms. It appears that the men have lost the spirit that they do not want to go and

BELLIGERENCY ALSO INCLUDES AUSTRIA

Official Notice Received at Chinese Legation in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—Official notice of China's declaration of war on Germany and Austria-Hungary was received today at the Chinese legation in cable dispatches from Peking.

DATES FROM 10 O'CLOCK A. M.

London, Aug. 14.—Reuter's, Limited, has been officially informed that China has declared war upon Germany and Austria-Hungary, the declaration dating from 10 o'clock this morning.

BILLIONS MORE IN LOANS TO BE MADE TO ALLIES

Washington, Aug. 14.—Congress will soon be asked to authorize another loan between three billion and four billion dollars to the allies.

Secretary McAdoo and Chairman Kitchin, of the ways and means committee, agreed on this today and also agreed upon the desirability of raising a larger sum than $2,000,000,000 for war purposes by taxation.

Summary of the Day's War News

Pope Benedict has addressed another appeal for peace to the belligerents. It is reported unofficially from Rome that the pope has made specific proposals to the heads of the warring nations, and that they include restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Rumania and peaceful adjustment of the questions of Alsace-Lorraine, Trent, Trieste and Poland. This is the second direct appeal by Pope Benedict to the belligerents.

In July of 1915 the pontiff sent a letter to them, inviting all friends of peace to unite with him in his desire to terminate the war.

It is expected the text of the new proposals will be published tonight in the official vatican organ.

Few changes in battle fronts are reported in today's dispatches. In France and Belgium, although sharp local engagements are under way, there has been no renewal of fighting on a large scale. The Paris war office reports that the German lines near Rheims were penetrated in two places by French reconnoitering parties. German raiding parties in the Champagne were driven back.

A British destroyer has been sunk by a mine in the North Sea. The captain, two officers and 48 men were saved.

TAX BURDEN ON WEALTH

Minority Report of Senate Finance Committee on Revenue Bill.

LA FOLLETTE PUTS IN FOR DISSENTERS

If Amendments Are Not Accepted Will File a Substitute.

Washington, Aug. 14.—A minority report of the senate finance committee on the war tax bill was presented to the senate today by Senator La Follette with the concurrence of Senators Gore and Thomas, recommending that war profits and big incomes be utilized as the principal sources of taxation in providing funds for the country's war needs.

Contrary to expectations Senator La Follette did not present a substitute for the pending war tax bill. He announced, however, that unless the senate adopted amendments to be offered by himself and his associates a substitution would be offered.

The minority report charges that the bill as revised by the majority makes but paltry inadequate provision for raising the revenue needed for financing the war through the next fiscal year, and that onus of the taxation has been placed upon those least able to bear it. England had taxed her war profits 80 per cent without injury to industry, said Senator La Follette.

Instead of our wealthy classes "were never in receipt of larger incomes nor were her larger business concerns more flourishing." Heavy taxes, he said, could be levied on American corporations without any fear of affecting capital or crippling industry.

Put It on War Profits.

"From the income tax and the war profits tax," states the report, "there can be raised without subjecting the country to serious financial strain and without depriving the wealthy even the luxuries of life, more than double the amount proposed in the pending bill."

If congress were to adopt the British rate of 80 per cent on war profits, Senator La Follette said, more than two and a quarter billions of dollars would be realized in a single year from this source. Seventy per cent would yield $2,021,000,000; 60 per cent, $1,732,000,000; 50 per cent, $1,443,700,000; 40 per cent, $1,155,100,000, and 30 per cent, $866,250,000, according to estimates furnished by the treasury department.

"Nothing that this country or any country has ever previously undertaken in the way of war financing," he declared, "compares with the obligations we are assuming. We have not merely to finance one country. We must to a large extent finance at least five or six other countries."

Shows Great Profits.

In comparison with the average yearly wage of $700 earned by the average laboring man Senator La Follette presented statistics indicating the percentage of war profits over normal earnings of the Dupont Powder com-

JAP MISSION IS SHOWN WESTERN HOSPITALITY

A Pacific Port, Aug. 14.—The hospitality of the west today was offered for the entertainment of a Japanese mission, which landed here yesterday, enroute to Washington. Short automobile excursions, a luncheon tendered by the mayor and a review of troops occupied most of the time of the visitors today. Tomorrow and next day trips of some distance into the country have been planned.

NO INDEMNITIES NO REPARATION POPE'S PROGRAM

Territorial Restorations All Round and League to Enforce Peace Fundamental Proposals.

VATICAN STARTS MOVE TO END THE WAR

Washington, Aug. 14.—An unofficial outline of Pope Benedict's peace proposals received here discloses that the pontiff includes some of the principles of world peace for which President Wilson has declared.

Among the pope's proposals are reduction of armaments, freedom of the seas and that there shall be no retaliatory struggle after the war for world commercial supremacy. These are regarded as the foundation stones of the pope's plan.

The pope's proposal declares that the injuries to all belligerents have been so great there should be no thought of reparation except for the return of territory.

Included in the restoration of territory, the pope's proposals insist, should be the return to Germany of all her colonies, as well as the complete restoration of Belgium to her sovereignty.

Proposals Quite Long.

The pope's proposals, which already have been delivered to the president, ambassadors and ministers of the warring powers in Rome, is quite long, making in print something more than a column of large newspaper type. Although special efforts are being made to facilitate its transmission to the United States, this may not be effected for at least a day or two.

Meanwhile, however, an accurate outline of the principal points of the pope's communication is in the hands of the government here and already has received thoughtful consideration.

Europe Nears Destruction.

In eloquent language the pontiff describes the terrible conditions existing in Europe, which he declares is headed for destruction unless the belligerents are willing to listen to the appeals of disinterested friends to cease a suicidal war. Such conditions, the pope feels, amply justify him in taking the present opportunity to suggest what may be, he hopes, at least a foundation upon which peace negotiations may be initiated.

At best Pope Benedict's proposals are only suggested as a rough basis for such negotiations and he realizes that the details in all their complexity must be worked out patiently and in a spirit of conciliation by the belligerents themselves.

Favors League of Peace.

Unqualified approval of President Wilson's plan for the avoidance of future wars by some form of international law which will have behind it the necessary power to enforce its judgments is given by Pope Benedict, who declares that along with such a splendid project must come an effective arrangement for reduction of armaments to a point just sufficient for defensive purposes or to carry out the mandates of the world power. It is inconceivable, the pope holds, that any

When You Change a Tire or Check Mileage You Appreciate Firestone Rims

YOU appreciate the Firestone Rim on the road, where the simple, handy construction makes tire removal quick and convenient. You recognize the effectiveness of the accurate alignment, the continuous support, and the true circle of the Firestone Rim when you find your tires wearing evenly and longer than you expected.

If you have owned cars in the past you probably realize the importance of Firestone Rim equipment in safety, convenience and tire saving. Two minutes is usually sufficient for removal. There are no complicated parts, no sticking, no rusting. And Firestone Rims are free from squeaking when the car is in motion.

But if you are purchasing your first car let us recommend that you insist upon Firestone Rims.

Bear in mind that they are the only rims built by a tire manufacturer. That is why they are so perfectly adapted to meet every tire need.

It is true that they cost the manufacturer a little more. Such a rim as the Firestone must of necessity cost more. Nevertheless you will find that the far-sighted car maker does not let the price question coerce him into giving you an inferior rim.

If the car you contemplate purchasing does not carry Firestone Rims, ask your dealer to make the change for you. If he cannot or will not do this, have the change made at your own expense. Your first tire change will convince you that it was money well spent. The increased mileage that you obtain will add to this conviction.

FOUR ROUND HOUSE MACHINISTS ADVANCED

Reorganization to Increase Efficiency Results in Promotions.

In addition to the changes involving the promotion of George W. Grubb and Harry S. Longwell to good positions at the Pennsylvania roundhouse, mentioned by The Sentinel last Saturday, four more were announced today, which also are nice promotions for the men affected. H. B. Keller has been promoted to assistant to Bert Ault, day foreman of the air brake department; H. K. Hammond has been promoted to the office of assistant to A. H. Emrick, night foreman of the air brake department; F. J. Burns has been advanced to foreman of heavy repairs, in charge of 5-A gang, the drop pit, and W. A. Scott will have charge of freight locomotive repairs at night. Each of these gentlemen has been employed as machinist at the roundhouse for several years and is well informed and abundantly able to discharge changes, like those affecting him. These changes, like those affecting Messrs. Grubb and Longwell, are made with a view of facilitating the handling of engines at the roundhouse.

LAD RECEIVES BAD WOUND.

Herald, the 7-month-old son of Machinist Charles W. Miller, of the Pennsylvania tool room, was riding on a little express wagon last night, pushing it along with one leg in a manner so common to youth, when the end of the wire tongue, which was broken, struck him in the neck, just below the chin and dangerously near the main artery. A deep gash resulted and the child bled freely, the lad losing a great deal of blood before it could be stopped. He is greatly improved today and will soon be around as usual.

Division Storekeeper J. B. Fowler added another woman to his force of material distributors in the stock room this morning. There are now three women working there and they are doing good work.

Assistant Master Carpenter F. H. Mitchell, who is out on a vacation, is now at Cadiz, Ohio, his former home, visiting relatives.

HAND BADLY CUT.

Clyde Riter, a machinist at the General Electric works, sustained injuries to one of his hands yesterday that will put him out of commission for several days. While operating a machine the member was caught and badly lacerated, but fortunately none of the fingers was permanently injured. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where Dr. F. J. Schulz dressed the wounded hand and afterwards Mr. Riter went to his home.

METER DEPARTMENT OFFICE IS MOVED

P. C. Morganthaler and J. B. Mills and Staff in New Quarters.

All the desks, chairs and other furniture in the offices of P. C. Morganthaler, J. B. Mills and A. W. Berling, of the meter department of the General Electric works, were transferred from the laboratory building to more commodious and pleasant quarters in the fifth story of building No. 19, on the south side of Wall street, last night, and this morning those gentlemen and their clerks and stenographers reported there for work. The production or mechanical part of the meter department was moved to building No. 19 a week or two ago and the change last night brings the department under one roof again. The rooms vacated in the laboratory building will be utilized in the expansion of the small motor department.

AUXILIARY TO HAVE PICNIC.

Robison park will be the scene of a gathering of ladies and gentlemen under the auspices of Hyacinth lodge No. 38, Ladies' Society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, tomorrow afternoon. A basket dinner will be a feature of the day and there will be various kinds of amusement for the little folks. These events of the ladies' society are always well attended and enjoyable.

HAND PAINFULLY CUT.

R. B. Arter, machinist in the Pennsylvania toolroom, sustained painful cuts on the back of his left hand and on the thumb. He was grinding a tool when some part of the machinery became disconnected and a bolt struck his hand, cutting a fearful gash on the back of the member and between the second and third fingers. He will be unable to work for several days.

HE SUCCEEDED DR. KELLS.

Word has been received here to the effect that Dr. H. Heston has been appointed medical examiner at Columbus, Ohio, for the Pennsylvania Relief department, succeeding the late Dr. J. M. Kells. Dr. Heston had been Dr. Kells' assistant. He has been in Fort Wayne as a member of the examining board several times and is known to a good many employees of the company here.

PARTY AT MACHINISTS' HALL.

There will be a card party in Machinists' hall, in the Lau block, next Thursday night. Everybody is cordially invited.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

F. P. Hirsch, of the General Electric works, went to Chicago on business for the company this morning.

C. R. Alken, of the cost department of the Pennsylvania, is spending the week at Lake James.

Business took R. O. Grosjean, of the Pennsylvania cost department, to Midvale, O., yesterday.

FT. WAYNE FEDERATION DENOUNCES I. W. W.

Central Labor Body Passes Resolutions and Takes Steps to Act.

The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor is not in the least interested in the I. W. W. or in sympathy with its cause, according to a resolution which received unanimous endorsement at the meeting of the federation Monday night. The resolution, which bears the signature of P. J. Miller, Ed Jergens and C. M. Felts, the committee, reads as follows:

"Whereas, The citizens of Fort Wayne have been led into the belief that there are I. W. W. organizers and agitators in our midst, who are opposed to the harmonious conditions now existing between labor and capital; and

"Whereas, Federated labor has been maliciously linked with destructionists, vandals, thugs and their disorganizing methods; and

"Whereas, It is not only the desire of the labor organizations of this city, but it is their intention to keep their slate clean and our city free from the various elements which have cast their stain upon other communities; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That this body go on record with the citizens of this community, that it is absolutely opposed to any so-called I. W. W.ism, anarchism, rowdism or any other form that is a hindrance or a detriment to the labor conditions or to the community at large; and, be it further

"Resolved, That the president of this body be empowered to form a protective organization, by appointing two delegates from each local labor organization in the city of Fort Wayne, whose duties shall be to report to this organization any overt act, unpatriotic speech, suspicious or undesirable characters, which may come under his observation, or hearsay; and, be it further

"Resolved, That this body place at the disposal of the mayor, chief of police, and the sheriff of Allen county any part of not less than 500 men to do duty as his or their deputies in upholding the good name of organized labor and this community; and, be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the mayor, chief of police, sheriff of Allen county, and the press, that the upholders of our peace and the citizens of Fort Wayne may be informed of the principles upon which we stand."

Following the adoption of the resolution the federation withdrew its membership from the Patriotic League. The delegates of the Cigarmakers' union also announced that they had withdrawn from the Patriotic league membership.

Because he has taken a position with the government, which will require his removal from the city, C. M. Felts resigned as president of the federation last night and was given a vote of thanks for the efficient manner in which he handled the affairs of the federation during the time he was at the head.

Persa R. Bell, for the past two years in charge of the printing trade at the vocational school, was elected to fill out the unexpired term of the retiring president.

Labor Day celebration came in for considerable discussion, developing an unusual interest among the individual unions, which indicates a successful demonstration. The parade will be the chief feature and the Elks, Citizens' and Buffalo bands will be in it. Several of the unions will demand a full turnout and will assess fines on members who fail to be in line.

Mrs. L. D. Redding, prominently connected with the Women's Union Label league, was appointed advertising solicitor of "The Worker," the federation's official publication, which will be improved.

A newly organized labor union, Electrical Workers' Local, No. 608, affiliated with the federation last night, and five delegates from that body were delegates.

Delegates from the Linemen's union reported that they will give an ice cream social at the Coliseum park Sunday afternoon and evening, August 26. The proceeds will be for the sick benefit fund of that organization.

Delegates to attend the council meeting tonight, when the gasoline tank ordinance will again be up for discussion.

The Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

G. L. Soliday, a helper at the Pennsylvania erecting shop, has gone to Rome City for a two weeks' outing.

R. J. Hughes, a tank repairman at the Pennsylvania shops, is sick and off duty.

The Wayne Knitting Mills announce a shortage in female help. Girls are needed in the winding department.

Passenger Fireman C. C. Niles, of the Pennsylvania, is taking a layoff to attend a family reunion.

Brakeman Frank Shepherd, of the G. R. & I., resigned this morning. He has enlisted in the United States navy.

L. F. Treco, late of the Transfer company, has taken employment as fireman on the G. R. & I.

After two weeks at Detroit and Cleveland, with friends and relatives, Fireman C. H. Gardner reported for work on the G. R. & I. this morning.

After working two weeks as a helper at the Pennsylvania boiler shop, W. R. Sweet resigned this morning and will go to Chicago to work.

B. Clark, a machinist helper, quit the Pennsylvania to take employment at the General Electric works this morning.

Robert O. Orff, superintendent of the warehouse at the General Electric works, will go to Pittsburgh next Thursday on business for the company.

G. W. Marchand, who went to Springfield, O., to visit relatives two weeks ago, resumed his office as labor foreman at the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

Miss Helen Talley, of the pay roll department of the General Electric works, is out on a vacation and will spend the present week with friends in Detroit.

Earl Saffen is again presiding as chief clerk in the office of Foreman B. F. Sarver, of the Pennsylvania boiler shop. Last week he had a most pleasant outing at Lake James.

TERRIBLE FATE OF ARMENIAN NATION

Atrocities by Turks and Germans Charged by an Interpreter.

Bombay, July 2.—(By Mail).—The following statement given to the Associated Press by a British officer now in a hospital here, presents a vivid picture of the sufferings undergone by the Armenians, of whom comparatively little first hand information has hitherto been forthcoming:

"Before I got my wound in the fighting up beyond Bagdad I came into contact on several occasions with a highly educated Armenian, who had escaped from the Turks and was being employed by us as an interpreter. The stories he told of the inhumanities inflicted upon his compatriots were so appalling that I made notes of his conversations and have attempted here to reproduce in something like his own language, so that you can get at the heart of the man and realize what he and all educated Armenians feel. The interpreter was in Constantinople until the end of last year, when he was sent to the front with a party of Armenians, several of whom escaped.

The interpreter's story follows: "What you have read and heard about Armenia is not a hundredth part of the truth. Dante's inferno was a heaven compared with the hell that the Turks have made of my country. Something of the awful reality of the past twelve months I have myself seen in passing through on the way to the front.

"At Aleppo there are four factories, in which, under the supervision of deported Armenians, two thousand Armenian women are being employed under terrible conditions. The women are all deportees, one of them said to me: 'On a halt during our deportations I saw a gendarme bury a sick woman alive. Cold blooded murders were an every day occurrence. Our guards had orders to kill on the spot any one who lagged behind on the journey. Often several were killed at once and there was no separate grave for them—the bodies were just thrown into a ditch together and covered. It was all horrible to behold, but our eyes eventually became hardened to the sight.'

"One Hundred Thousand Slain. "Tab, Mesquene and Zor are three places never to be forgotten by us Armenians. I have visited them. Do you know what happened there a few months since?

"By the order of Governor Anfi, nearly 100,000 of my brothers were murdered, massacred by armed Circassians.

"At Bosant I saw six railway trucks of little Armenian children being dispatched 'to an unknown destination.' What had these little innocents done to offend? Was it the mere fact of being alive and being sons and daughters of our unhappy race?

"The German soldiers that one sees around the stations in Armenia are generally of a low type and not far behind the Turks in their disregard for the rights of the people.

Different From Turks. "Their cruelty is a little different from that of the Turk, but the difference is only one of kind. The Turk, for example, often respects certain things which we have learned to associate with our religious or racial beliefs; the German has no respect for anything; nothing is too sacred for his profane hands. The Turk frequently used to show some respect and deference to the upper class Armenians, the educated people, regarding them as perhaps capable of being useful even in a Turkish dominion. The German, as soon as he arrived here, pointed out the educated Armenian as the most dangerous of all, and instigated the Turks into organizing a ruthless persecution of the intellectual classes of Armenians. One day they surrounded the office of the conservative newspaper, Asdamard, arrested all the staff and deported them. I know not why, though. Will they ever return? Who knows?

One Child's Suffering. "One day I walked from a place where thousands of innocent women, girls and children were bivouacked, suffering nameless miseries. I walked away because I could not bear any more to gaze upon them, and I came to a hill where I saw a little child, I was in Turkish uniform. The child came near me and cried in Turkish, 'Give me, for God's sake, a piece of bread. For five days I have eaten nothing but this.' He pointed to some human skin that had been left lying on the road. I answered him in Armenian, 'The poor boy jumped up into my arms, saying, 'Art thou Armenian?' He remained there a minute, uttering no other word. But I felt warm tears falling down my cheek.

"The waters of the Euphrates, the sands of the deserts of Mesopotamia, are the graves of the whole Armenian nation. I can no longer weep. My tears have frozen in my eyes."

CHILDREN GIVE $50 TO RED CROSS FUND

Sale of Pop-corn and Peanuts by Juveniles Aids Work of Local Chapter.

Just what great services the children of the city are doing for the Red Cross work was shown Tuesday morning when over $50 was turned in to the headquarters on East Berry street, representing the proceeds from the sale of pop corn, candy and lemonade by the children in the neighborhood of Brackenridge street and in Lakeside.

Twelve children, Lucille and Clementine Parnin, Ellen Wolfe, Audrey Geddis, May Loney, Doris Welker, Ursula Tansey, Florence Footley, William Footley, Frances Sallier, Leo Sunshine and Russell Loney contributed $50 by the sale of pop corn and candy during the past week, and three other children, Robert Evans, Jack Martin and Wilmer Soest, living in Lakeside, gave the sum of $3.33 from the sale of lemonade. This is only an instance of the wonderful work that has been done during the summer months by the children working in the interest of the Red Cross.

It was announced at headquarters Tuesday morning that the members of Miss Ott's class in the home care of the sick who had not been present for the former examination would have a "quiz" on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock and on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

HARD TIMES PARADE, ROB-ISON PARK, AUG. 16

"Stick to the text" in dressing for the Hard Times Parade. It does not call for any expenditure of money. In fact, its object is to avoid that. Every home has countless old costumes that can be pieced together, the more worn and faded, the better. Hard times do not necessarily signify shiftlessness nor uncleanness; neither do they mean rents in garments and unnecessary exposure of person. The only object of the Hard Times Parade is good, wholesome fun. Go to the Bijou building, where a numbered tag will be given you. This numbered tag should be worn on the left breast, in full view of the judges, as prizes will be awarded by number only.

THOMAS R. GREEN

POPULAR HEAD CLERK AT THE
DOXLEY HOTEL IS NOW PRAIS-ING IRONATED HERBS.

It is always interesting to listen to the statements of a friend, especially when you know that he is sincere and honest in what he says. Added interest is created in a statement coming from a man of standing and unquestioned integrity.
Such a man is Thos. R. Green, who resides at 297 East Twelfth street, Anderson, Ind. Mr. Green, who is connected with the Doxley Hotel in Anderson, in speaking of his past condition and improvement by Ironated Herbs with Pepsin (liquid form) said: "For years I have suffered with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I could not digest my food and suffered great distress after eating, as my stomach was filled with gas caused from fermentation of food. I had to be very careful about what I ate; I had heartburn, headaches, and was very dizzy at times. My blood was in poor condition and I felt tired all the time. I had taken a number of different medicines, but none of them did me any real good. I started to take Ironated Herbs with Pepsin and am now glad to state that the results have been wonderful in my case. I am not constipated and can eat anything I want without the least distress. I feel better than I have for years, and am glad to give this public endorsement for Ironated Herbs."
There are numerous symptoms of this trouble that Ironated Herbs can relieve. In fact, anyone of the following may denote affections of the stomach: Indigestion, dyspepsia, belching of wind, bad breath, sick throbbing headaches, poor circulation, night sweats, catarrh, that tired feeling, constipation, a coated tongue, or a poor complexion. Organic Iron makes red blood; Pepsin for the digestion; Herbal extracts purify the system. This combination makes the ideal tonic.
Our demonstrator will gladly explain to you its merits and supply you with a bottle at Meyer Bros' drug store, 902 Calhoun street, Fort Wayne. It is also sold in all Meyer Bros' other Fort Wayne stores; at Bluffton by Davenport & Ehler; Huntington, A. C. Beckstein; Roanoke, Hackett & Sons; New Haven, H. E. # Nuxated Iron to Make New Age of Beautiful Women and Vigorous Iron Men Say Physicians—Quickly Puts Roses Into the Cheeks of Women and Most Astonishing Youthful Vitality Into the Veins of Men—It Often Increases the Strength and Endurance of Delicate, Nervous, "Run-Down" Folks 100 Per Cent. in Two Weeks' Time.

Opinions of Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City; Dr. James Louis Beyer, for fifteen years Adjunct Professor in the New York Homeopathic Medical College, and Wm. R. Kerr, Former Health Commissioner, City of Chicago.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Since the remarkable discovery of organic iron, Nuxated Iron or "Nuxated," as the French call it, has taken the country by storm. It is conservatively estimated that over three million people annually are taking it in this country alone. Most astonishing results are reported from its use by both physicians and laymen. So much so that doctors predict that we shall soon have a new age of far more beautiful, rosy-cheeked women and vigorous iron men.
Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York physician and medical authority, when interviewed on this subject, said: "There can be no vigorous iron men without iron. Pallor means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is pale, the flesh flabby. The muscles lack tone; the brain fades and the memory fails and often they become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melanchoy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks. In the most common foods of America, the starches, sugars, tallow, syrups, candies, polished rice, white bread, soda crackers, macaroni, spaghetti, tapioca, sago, farina, degenerated cornmeal, and silly methods of house cooking no longer furnish the waste pipe the water in which our vegetables are cooked, are responsible for another grave iron loss.
Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, you must supply the iron deficiency in your food by using some form of organic iron, just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt."
Former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of the city of Chicago, says: "I have taken Nuxated Iron myself and experienced its health giving strength building effect and in the interest of the public welfare, I feel it my duty to make known the results of its use. I am well past three score years and want to say that I believe my own great physical vigor is largely due today to my personal use of Nuxated Iron. From my own experience with Nuxated Iron I feel it is such a valuable remedy that it ought to be used in every household and prescribed by every physician in this country."
Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston physician who has studied both in this country and in great European medical institutions, said: "As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders."
"Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old, and asked me to give him a preliminary examination before he took life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of twenty and as full of vigor and vitality as a young man. In fact, a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking iron."
"Nuxated Iron," he said, "filled him with new life. At 30 he was in bad health; at 45 he was careworn and nearly all in; at 50 after taking Nuxated Iron, he was a man of vitality, his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into life. It is the power that enables you to grow, without it, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. It gives you the strength to do it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run down people, my patients all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely rid themselves of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this, after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit.

Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderfully effective remedy."
Dr. James Louis Beyer, for fifteen years adjunct professor in the New York Homeopathic Medical College, says: "As a physician I have always been opposed to prescribing advertised remedies and for fifteen years, while adjunct professor in the New York Homeopathic Medical College, I taught my medical students that such remedies were generally valueless. But in the case of Nuxated Iron severe tests made on myself and numerous patients have absolutely convinced me that it is a remedy of most extraordinary merit and one which should be generally prescribed by all physicians. Notwithstanding

FORT WAYNE LABOR SPEAKS.

The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, by unanimous action, has outlawed the activities of the Industrial Workers of the World in this city. The central body of the labor organizations here has set forth in resolutions that it has no sympathy and nothing in common with the I. W. W. and its red propaganda of violence and destruction. The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, not content with mere declaration of its position, goes much farther and initiates steps for creating a protective organization of five hundred members whose duty it shall be to co-operate actively with the peace authorities of the city and county to keep I. W. W. agitation and methods and all other unpatriotic and disloyal sentiment and conduct out of this community.

In doing this the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor does well, acts wisely. It is taking not merely the course of common sense for the proper safeguarding of its own interests but is setting above all else the highest considerations of good citizenship and sound patriotism. The text of the resolutions leaves no doubt of the federation's sincerity of purpose and its determination to give effect to it. This paragraph from the federation's declaration is admirably stated and covers the ground of a great and patriotic service:

Resolved, That the president of this body be empowered to form a protective organization, by appointing two delegates from each local labor organization in the city of Fort Wayne, whose duties shall be to report to this organization any overt act, unpatriotic speech, suspicious or undesirable character, which may come under his observation or hearsay. It is with no passive loyalty that this organization means to signalize its conduct toward its city and its country. It declares for service, and goes ahead to prepare the machinery of service along lines and upon a scale that vouchsafes great usefulness. That its position may be open to no doubt and its good purposes may not be handicapped, the federation has extinguished its membership in the Patriotic League, an organization ostensibly to promote peace, and is squared away upon its course untrammelled and unafraid.

Any attempt of I. W. W. agents and agitators to embrace Fort Wayne in their field of activities will find the bars raised against them and not even toleration, much less sympathy, for their evil propaganda in this community. The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor has set a high example that we believe will be widely emulated.

THE KAISER'S MESSAGE.

When Judge Gerard began the publication of his serial story with the kaiser's telegram to President Wilson early in August, 1914, he did not do it with the allegation that "this is the telegram." He reproduced the original sheets penned by the kaiser himself. Semi-official or even official denials from Berlin that this telegram was ever sent, or charges that it has been garbled and made to say things it never was meant by the kaiser to say, cannot stand against such an evidence, even if any one were disposed to question the correctness of the copy furnished by the state department at Washington.

The truth is that when President Wilson, almost immediately after the outbreak of the great war, tendered this nation's friendly offices to bring about peace, Emperor William wrote that disputed message in which he pleaded that the violation of Belgium was made imperative by considerations of strategy and charged that Great Britain had given him assurance that she would keep out of the war. We do not believe any denial of the telegram will be long persisted in. Some of the leading newspapers of Germany so far from making any pretense that it never was sent, insist that it was sent. One influential journal that solemnly questions the fact, at the same time naively cites the message as mountainous proof that the kaiser was the great friend of peace and strove to avert the war. The promise from Berlin that the message from the kaiser to the president will be explained officially carries no great import. The message is plain enough and speaks for itself. What is there is there, and an interpretation three years after the event will change nothing and will not be likely to influence any impartial estimate of the disclosures in the text.

Ambassador Gerard will probably go on with his serial story—later to be published as a book—and reveal many interesting and historic matters that relate to his ambassadorial career in Germany from the beginning of it down through the great conflict to the time when his recall took him away from that trying post. The ex parte testimony of the throne and the foreign office will not be needed to interpret the plain language of Judge Gerard to the people of America, for whom he is writing his thrilling but veracious historical narrative.

WILL PUT UP Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

The prospect now is quite definite that there will be no halting of the Young Men's Christian association building enterprise. There has been a deficit of the building funds created by the high cost of materials and labor, but this it is designed to overcome by issuing bonds for $100,000 to be underwritten by a score of Fort Wayne men who are interested in this great movement.

There is no purpose to cut down the accepted plans for the building. The structure will go up as it was designed to be and the edifice will not be made to suffer. This is a wise decision. The plans have been carefully and expertly drawn to meet the present and future needs of the Y. M. C. A. work in Fort Wayne. Any radical alteration of these plans would result in a building in every way less than the need is calculated to be, and unsatisfactory all round. It is much better to invest the additional money necessary to realize the accepted plans than to attempt to meet the situation by mutilating the plans.

Fort Wayne needs the building badly—has needed it badly for many years—and it is well that there is to be no delay of the work in the hope that prices will fall. If the war should end at once, we doubt that it would greatly affect the labor and material markets. The rush of Europe to obtain the materials for her own reconstruction would sustain the present situation indefinitely, no doubt.

Altogether, the decision to proceed at once with the Y. M. C. A. building is wise and will prove satisfactory. The underwriters of the bonds will be rendering a great service that the community will not be tardy to appreciate. In good time and more propitious season the way will be found to retire these bonds. That there is not to be another campaign to raise money will be happily received on all hands. Fort Wayne has been distinguished by a vast generosity toward many benevolent enterprises during the past year and a half.

Food Director Hoover is losing no time putting the machinery of his absolutism in motion. That is a good thing, for if there is to be food control, price regulation and conservation the time to make a surety of them is before the grubstuffs begin to disappear into elevators, cold storage and other places not strictly invisible but nevertheless not easy to find and get into. It is announced that perhaps—a mere probability, so far—that the entire wheat crop of the nation will be taken over and managed by the food bureau. Sure enough. For what purpose else is a food control established? Conservation of the supply itself and consideration of the American domestic pocketbook dictate that much. That has been the mainly exploited reason for causing the senate's delay to give the country food control. After making sure the hard grain supply is where it will behave itself, Director Hoover should make sure that the year's crop of potatoes is going to remain a visible supply, and that the American egg will not become the oceanic quantity in the total of foodstuffs until the price has gone where it went last fall and winter. Now that we have a food dictatorship, the common people—and some others—will be refreshed and rejoiced to see it dictate.

Many a boy who has never learned the virtue of toil, who imagines life is going to be all through whatever his mind's equivalent is for "beer and skittles" and has not much concerned himself with serious thoughts of duty and service, will get a complete mental and spiritual rehabilitation from the Boys' Working Reserve. Most boys have no need of this new inspiration to labor and service. They have been brought up to it and probably the larger percentage of them everywhere have had some practical taste of it. They will enter readily into the spirit of this movement that is to prove one of the republic's greatest resources in the war. There are hundreds of thousands of these boys—millions of them, indeed—who will get training in labor and schooling in duty in this non-military service that in later years will become the strongest bulwark of the nation.

The governor of Illinois has created and filled the office of coal director and already the promise is good for more coal at less money. That is moving with some celerity. Governor Lowden began work on that job but a few days ago.

She stood a moment locked in wonder vast; Then, as she turned away, I thought somehow That summer had gone, too. A wintry blast Flung bitterly across the apple bough Where to I clung, and chilled me as she passed.

I saw her moving gracefully along, Her arm fixed closely to her mute-held side, And her fine, careless face drawn tense and strong— I smiled, I listened—then, alas, I sighed; For as she went I heard her sing no song!

That eve we met—we met as friends, where all Were gathered, and the waltz's music sang With waltz, delicious pleading through the hall. I saw her white throat quiver—swift tears sprang— Ah, she was grand that evening at the ball!

When thence she walked with me her voice was low, And gentle as a wood-dove's mating note, Lute-like and calm its sibilant, even flow, Received my jests with gurgles in her throat— Yet 'twas not as before that we did go!

It Surely Is Unlucky.

Square Dealing, Fair Prices

(Christian Science Monitor.)

The United States is not in the war in order that a certain small percentage of its people shall be enabled to build up enormous fortunes from excessive profits on supply contracts, nor will it permit its own people, or the people of the entire nation, to be victimized by extortioners, so far as they may be found within its jurisdiction. This, briefly, is the attitude and policy of the Washington government. There must be square dealing on all sides under the private contract system, or the industries upon whose production the future of democracy and the happiness of humanity are in a large measure dependent will be taken over by the government, and conducted solely with a view to the public welfare at home and abroad. The United States has no vital interest or concern, in the conduct or outcome of the war, separate from those of its associates in the struggle. It cannot be served by any course that runs counter to the interest or concern of the nations with which it has cast its lot. It will not allow its associates to be misled, so far as it can prevent it.

The fact is recognized, by the president and his advisers, that the question of determining prices on the basis of reasonable profits is of the utmost importance in the prosecution of the war. The United States and its allies must be protected against imposition and drain, that their resources may be conserved for the final trial of strength with the enemy. It has been a commonly accepted theory, from the outbreak of the conflict, that victory would eventually lie with the side which developed the greater power of financial endurance. The administration at Washington realizes that even the financial resources of the United States, immense as they are today, are not beyond impairment or exhaustion. The country has assumed, in addition to the enormous cost of conducting a war on its own account, stupendous obligations in behalf of its associate nations. It cannot afford to suffer leakage at any point; it cannot afford to close its eyes to dishonesty on any side. For its own safety, if for no other reason, it must exercise quite as much vigilance in behalf of its allies as it exercises for its own protection.

It is being made plain to private interests, therefore, that no discrimination against the allies will be permitted. They must be dealt with as squarely and as liberally as the United States itself. In fact, the United States proposes to take over the duty and the responsibility of supervising, and practically passing upon, contracts made within its borders by or for the allies. It is already planned to consolidate, as far as possible, all American and allied war purchases, to place them on a common level, both as regards inspection as to quality and as to the determination of prices.

Necessarily, the fixing of prices satisfactory to all parties will be a tedious and a somewhat difficult task, but it can be greatly lightened by the co-operation of those in control of important industries. There is no disposition, on the part of the government, to deprive manufacturers of reasonable profits. Rather is there a desire to insure them returns fully commensurate with their investments, for neither the United States nor any other contracting government can afford to do business with a losing, and, consequently, with an unstable concern. It is plainly to the interest of the several nations that the industries upon which they are depending for supplies shall be prosperous. In letting contracts for supplies it is the custom of the United States to make generous allowance for interest on borrowed capital, for the expansion of buildings, for the purchase of new machinery and tools, and for other expenses likely to be incurred by the contractor in making ready for the prompt and skillful performance of extraordinary tasks. The United States does not regard it as either a wise or a necessary policy to "squeeze" establishments operating in its service. On the other hand, it may be depended on to deal severely with concerns detected in dishonest practices.

It is not necessary that sentimentalism shall enter into the effort which the government is making, through the industrialism of the war industries board, to curb profiteering. There is nothing sentimental in the contention that the nation shall be treated, in all transactions, in accordance with the ethics prevalent among honorable business men. Commercially, as well as morally, the government at Washington and the governments associated with the United States in the war, are entitled to the treatment accorded private purchasers. Because these governments make purchases on an enormous scale is certainly no reason why they should be imposed upon. It is a reason, rather, from a purely commercial point of view, why they should receive exceptionally favorable consideration at the hands of those dealing with them. Only an oblique vision can be reconciled to the notion that, because the transaction is with a government, rather than with an individual, a departure from the strict line of honest dealing is permissible.

That President Wilson is extremely interested in the elimination of all irregularities from what may be described as the business side of the war, is made evident by his visit to the federal trade commission, this week, and his expressed desire for greater speed in the determination of the costs of production. Manifestly, he is so solicitous, as all right-thinking citizens must be, that the conduct of the war shall be as clean as the motive which prompted the nation to take part in it.

the duty and of military expediency.

As the Tribune repeatedly has contended, the armies of the republic should be made up of a universal service force, training in peace times, drawn from the young men of 19 or 20, and of a force of reserves made up of the men who have had this peace training and been returned to civilian pursuits. In case of any considerable war the first force would be augmented by drawing from the second or reserve force, which, of course, would be made up, to some extent, of married men.

Under our present stop gap system the same result must be expected; not only single men, but married men must be taken. Marriage and fatherhood are no discharge from the duty of defense in this country, any more than in England, France or Germany. Congress is going to provide for a larger compensation for privates than ever has been paid. Wives may have to make some sacrifices, and in some cases may have to add to their means by work. But except where the individual is the sole support of dependents unable to get along with the aid provided by government and the soldier's pay, married men who are good soldier material may and must be required to serve.

The pressure to grant exemptions is going to be heavy, no doubt, but it must be withstood, if the nation is to have an army fit to fulfill its military requirements in this war.

FROM THE SENTINEL PAGES 25 YEARS AGO

The hot weather of August continues.

The people's party of this county proposes to carry on a vigorous campaign.

Miss May Polhamus has returned from an outing at Twin Lakes, Wis.

William Wiebke returned from Grand Rapids this morning.

The grading of Harnar street, between Wayne and Washington streets, has been commenced.

Sam Murphy will not move his family to New Haven avenue, as he had contemplated, but will remain on Force street.

William L. Waltemuth, the druggist, will open his new store at the corner of Lewis and Hanna streets by the middle of the week.

Sam Morris leaves Thursday for Denver, where he will join his family, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Case, formerly of this city.

Yesterday was the twenty-ninth anniversary of the birth of George Kiefer, of the Centlivre brewery. The friends of the genial George will recall to memory the occasion with pleasure.

Engineer Michael Shea, of the Grand Rapids road, received a letter at 8 o'clock this morning from New Haven announcing the death of his brother, Daniel. The deceased was a former well known telegraph operator of this city.

The property holders on East Wayne street where the brick pavement has just been completed, are busily engaged in grading the strip between the walks and curb. In the spring this will be soiled, when Wayne street will be one of the most beautiful streets in the city.

Seth Klinkenberger, who lives with his parents at 385 Hanna street, is the victim of a runaway accident. Saturday evening in company with Frank Keller, Seth started out to deliver some goods for John W. Sueber, the Hanna street butcher, and while thus engaged the horse became frightened and ran away. Klinkenberger had three ribs broken and Keller sustained severe bruises. The wagon was a total wreck.

MARRIED MEN AND THE DRAFT.

(Chicago Tribune.)

Orders from Gen. Crowder to stiffen up on exemptions are most timely. There is a rather humiliating proportion of drafted men who are claiming exemption, and if the lines are not tightly drawn there will be a great deal of demoralizing injustice worked in the draft.

The case of married men is the most conspicuous problem. There was much talk last year of the injustice of calling married men to the border while youths without domestic responsibilities were all allowed to remain at home. That was under the volunteer system, and as a consequence of this recent line of attack on that system there evidently was created a rather exaggerated notion of the right of married men to be relieved of military service. This will have to be corrected no win its turn.

We can never have a system which will relieve married men of the duty of military service. No such system exists in any country, and this republic will have to rely upon married men as well as single to fill its armies. So far as sentiment is concerned, there is something to be said on both sides. It is objected on behalf of the unmarried youth that he is taken before he has had a chance at life, and on behalf of the married man, that he has assumed private ties which ought not to be broken. But it is not a question of sentiment. It is a question of pub-

COLLEGE ATHLETES GIVEN COMMISSIONS

Chicago and Illinois Universities Fare Notably in Distribution.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 14.—Athletes from the University of Chicago and Illinois fared well in the distribution of commissions at the Fort Sheridan officers' training camps. The success of the athletes, army officers said today, was probably due to the fact that participation in sporting events gives thorough acquaintance with discipline and also an increased facility in co-ordination between mind and muscle.

Among those receiving commissions is John E. Canning, noted as the lightest and one of the fastest guards in the "big nine" conference when he performed for the University of Chicago, five years ago. He was appointed captain of infantry in the first company.

Kent Chandler, former track man and Laurence Whiting, captain of the midway football team in 1915, won captaincies in the first troop of cavalry.

Hans Norgren and Walter Schaefer, members of the Chicago gridiron team during the last two seasons were appointed second lieutenants of infantry.

Pete Russell, captain of the Maroon football team and noted quarterback for three seasons ending in 1915; Frankie Ward, sprinter and hurdler and captain of the Maroon track team, and George Setzer, who played halfback on Chicago during the last two seasons, received commissions as lieutenants in the regular army.

Mike Mason, considered one of the best distance runners the University of Illinois ever produced, also received a commission in the regular army.

Other Illinois men who were awarded commissions are Ralph Chapman, captain of the 1914 championship team; Ray Woods, basketball star, and Bill Krebs, former third baseman on the baseball nine.

DESERTER IS DOOMED TO DIE

Heavy Penalty Awaits Those Who Show Yellow Streak in Time of War.

WANTS MEN FOR AMBULANCE CORPS

Company E's Baseball Team Suffers Defeat at Hands of Athletics.

Death is the deserter's doom in time of war, provided he shows the yellow streak in face of the enemy, states Major Thomas F. Ryan, of the regular army recruiting station.

Other men who are regarded as deserters will now be given a sentence to the federal prison. The ordinary sentence is twenty years, which time will be spent in "cracking rocks." Major Ryan returned from Fort Benjamin Harrison Tuesday morning, where on Monday he was a witness in the case against an alleged deserter.

Major Ryan has received an order to recruit men for the First Indiana regiment, Ambulance company, which is now stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

Twenty-two men were sent from the regular army recruiting station to Fort Thomas, Ky., Monday evening, Tuesday promised to be another big day.

LOSE BASE BALL GAME.

Company E Men Give Sore Arms as Allie for Defeat.

By a score of ten to six the base ball team representing Company E was defeated by the Fort Wayne Athletics at the Central league park Monday afternoon. This was a benefit game, but the attendance was far from being good.

Members of the soldier team and other members of the company state that they would never have lost had it not been for the fact that all the boys were harboring a sore arm as the result of being inoculated against typhoid fever Monday afternoon and also being subjected to vaccination against smallpox.

All the members of the company regardless of the fact that they were given the same treatment last year before departing for the border, were forced to take the inoculation, again. Some of the men were sick as the result of having the needle stuck into their upper arm.

TRY, TRY AGAIN.

John Gordon, Member of Company E, Has a Long Record.

Pursuance of the old adage, "try, try again," has landed John Gordon, of this city, in the ranks of Company E. On June 19, 1916, when the Fort Wayne company mobilized previous to the Mexican border duty, John enlisted as a member. He was turned down by the physicians at Fort Benjamin Harrison as physically unfit for military service. He returned to Fort Wayne and enlisted in Battery D.

He passed the examination and at the border was transferred to the supply company. Called out again this year the young man was again turned down at Fort Harrison. He came back to the city and has now enlisted and successfully passed the test for Company E.

READY FOR THE CALL.

Company B, Signal Corps, Can Leave Upon a Two-Hour Notice.

Preparations are complete for the departure of Company B, Signal Corps, and officers state that if found necessary they could leave the city upon a two-hour notice. Everything is in readiness and the men have all received the shot in the arm. Many of the men are still finding it a painful task to even shake hands with their friends as the arm is rather stiff and sore.

DEPARTURE IS NEAR.

Local Officers Believe They Will Leave City Before Sunday.

The opinion is prevalent among officers that the two local companies, Company E and Company B, will leave Fort Wayne before next Sunday. Unofficial word has it that the order to move will come about Thursday and that the men will go to Fort Benjamin Harrison, where they will remain only a few days. It is understood that the regiments will mobilize there and then enroute for Hattiesburg, Miss., where a strenuous drill period of several months awaits them.

DRILL FORTY MINUTES.

Sympathy Is Shown Members of Company E Due to Sore Arms.

Although suffering from stiff and sore arms, members of Company E were in a sense jubilant Tuesday morning as sympathy was extended them in the way of a short drill practice. Only forty minutes was consumed in drilling at the ball park. It was stated, however, that the regular drill period would be resumed Wednesday morning.

Landis and Webb of the corps and the public in general for the success of the entertainment, which included card tables for those who cared to play games and music for the younger crowd who danced, including many boys of the corps. About sixty dollars were taken in at the door and many tickets had been previously sold. Miss Loos, who has just returned from some months of study in Chicago, made a great hit and after an encore response came out again to sing "America," which brought everyone to his feet and applause and cheers. Miss Emel Verweire was the accompanist for the solo work. The dancing numbers all pleased greatly and they easily might have monopolized the rest of the evening so far as the audience was concerned. Miss Romary has just come back from some special study in Chicago, and her improvement was noted and appreciated. Altogether it was a fine entertainment and it lasted as long as the young people could persuade anybody to furnish music. Several of the signal corps men who had been "shot" in the morning were not feeling as fine as they will be in a few days after they recover from inoculation and vaccination throbs and pains.

AT THE PALACE

ENDS STAY WEDNESDAY.

But Three More Performances of "Pretty Baby" at Palace.

"Pretty Baby" will coo and chortle for the last time at the New Palace Wednesday evening, for this Broadway musical comedy with Jimmie Hodges and Jean Tynes in the featured roles was booked for but four days. When this galaxy of fun and song stars leave the New Palace dark for three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the twinkling song hits and laugh-evoking comedy will be ringing in the ears of Fort Wayne folks for weeks to come, for the songs are sprightly catchy airs, sung by a group of artists who possess voices that are rare in musical comedy.

The production really is a musical revue with a plentiful splashing of girls to enhance the efforts of the featured stars. Hodges himself is an eccentric comedian of the nut type who can get a laugh one instant and thrill one with his splendid tenor the next, while the adorable Jean Tynes is as graceful in her dance numbers as she is good to look upon.

Opening August 19 the New Palace will make its initial bow in vaudeville for the season with the great jazz act, "The Tennessee Ten," an act framed by Ralph Dunbar, the king of musical entertainers.

HIGHER TAXES ARE FAVORED

Directors of Commercial Club Say City Must Have More Money.

COMMITTEE MAKES AN INVESTIGATION

Increased Rate Seems Only Way to Meet Situation, They Find.

Following a thorough investigation on the part of the committee on city interests, the directors of the Fort Wayne Commercial club, have gone on record as favoring a higher tax levy for Fort Wayne.

The report of the committee was adopted, the investigation being the result of the campaign started by police and firemen for more pay. The committee's report is as follows:

Your committee on city interests beg leave to submit to the board of directors some facts for its consideration that the committee deem of vital importance to the progress and best interests of the city of Fort Wayne.

It is quite apparent that for several years last past the administrative departments of the city have been handicapped in the administration of the respective departments by reason of the lack of sufficient funds to properly provide for public needs and public demands. The administrative department have under their supervision the fire, police and park departments as well as the supervision of all other public improvements. The board of public works has been without sufficient means to make the public improvements required and demanded and has frequently been compelled to turn down street improvements petitioned for by the property owners because of lack of funds to pay for interest.

For several years the department have petitioned the council for additional funds to meet the demands made upon them but no substantial increase has been given. The board of safety this year in its budget the council calls attention to the fact that both the police department and the fire department is in need of additional men and equipment. The employees of said departments are petitioning for a raise in salaries which, upon inquiry, the committee believes ought to be given them. The heads of the departments recognize the justice of the employees' demands owing to the high cost of living but nothing can be done by the department unless the tax levy is increased by the council.

Our parks, that add to the comforts and beauty of the city, have suffered for the want of funds to develop them. The members of this committee have been frequently importuned by city officials to urge upon the council the necessity of increasing the tax levy.

Fort Wayne has made substantial progress, but is not progressing as it should and not as rapidly as the people will that it should.

The time for fixing the tax levy by the common council is near at hand and this committee believes that the Commercial club, a representative body, should urge upon the common council the necessity of increasing the tax levy for the next fiscal year; not only should it petition the council, but should urge all other organizations to co-operate with it and do likewise.

Your committee has made extended inquiries and is convinced from the replies received that an increased tax levy sufficient to provide funds for the public improvements demanded and to pay living wages to its employees would be approved.

The committee is not urging extravagance, but it is urging the Commercial club recommend to the common council such a substantial increase as will enable the administrative departments of the city to make the improvements that the people demand and are willing to pay for; that will enable the city to pay to its employees such salaries and wages as present living conditions now demand and will enable the park commissioners to extend and develop its park system and make Fort Wayne one of the foremost progressive cities of the west.

Respectfully submitted, C. A. NEBERGALL, C. B. FITCH, CHAS. REUSS, C. M. MILLS, E. E. GRIEST, Committee.

SOME APPROPRIATIONS TO BE ASKED COUNCIL

Board of Works and Park Board to Seek Funds for Swimming Pool.

Several appropriations will be asked from the city council, which meets in regular session Tuesday evening. The board of works and the park board will each ask for an appropriation of $1,250 for the swimming pool in Lawton park.

It is understood that $2,500 is needed to purchase some property near the swimming pool and that the two boards have agreed between themselves to ask for half of the appropriation.

The board of works will also ask for an appropriation of $500 for bridge repairs for the coming season. At the regular meeting of the council the semi-annual report of the controller will also be submitted, as will the budget for next year.

WANT SIX PARK POLICEMEN.

The park board at its session Monday night advocated the appointment of six policemen for the parks, to be appointed by the board of safety. According to the plan the park board will pay the salaries of these men from the park fund.

The board also adopted a resolution authorizing the laying of curbing from the end of Broadway to the F. I. Brown private driveway. This would complete the curbing along the east side of Broadway from the bridge to Foster park.

Superintendents were also given Park Superintendent Adolph Jaenicke to fill up that section of the lagoon in Lakeside park, where the Morton sewer crosses the park. Sulfur water has been standing in this place and it has been impossible to drain it.

The bid of Dr. Adams for the installation of toilets at Lakeside park was accepted by the board and the park superintendent was authorized to grade the roadways in Lawton park.

One of the postponed park band concerts will be held at the Potato Patch Patriots' celebration in Foster park Wednesday evening.

The concert scheduled for Lakeside park on Tuesday, August 20, has been postponed until August 23, as the Red Cross will give an ice cream social on the former date.

MANY SPUDS TO BE SHOWN

Amateur Potato Growers Enter Their Prize Tubers in Contest.

EVENT TO BE HELD AT FOSTER PARK

Hon. James E. Watson Will Come and Give a Stump Speech at Park.

Spuds galore will be seen at the Potato Patch Patriots' celebration to be held Wednesday afternoon and evening at Foster park. All the enthusiastic potato producers who reside south of the railroad have entered their prize tubers in the contest.

The celebration will be held at Foster park instead of on Park avenue as was the original plan. This change became necessary when it was discovered that one of the residents on Park avenue was seriously ill.

Hon. James E. Watson, United States senator, is coming and will give his address from the top of a stump in Foster park. Mr. Watson is noted for making stump speeches and he will tell the thousands of people who gather there all about potato vines, potato bugs and patriotism.

Avery M. Groves and Ernest W. Cook will be the other speakers of the day, and the "stunts" which were planned to be given on Park avenue will be carried out just the same way at the park. Plenty of amusement will be furnished.

Special street car service will be given for the accommodation of the crowds of people who will crowd the park in the afternoon and evening.

MAY HAVE TO RETURN BOY

Major T. F. Ryan Asks War Department to Make a Ruling in Case.

JURISDICTION IS ENTIRE QUESTION

Major Believes Carl Johnson Must Be Given to Civil Authorities.

Carl Johnson, the young man who was arrested Saturday night on a charge of unlawful possession of a vehicle and who was turned over to the commanding officer of his military company by order of Judge Waveland Kerr of the city court, may have to be returned to civil authorities for punishment.

The entire question is who has the jurisdiction in this case. Major Thomas F. Ryan of the regular army recruiting station is of the opinion that the youth must be turned over to the civil authorities for trial, but has wired the war department asking them to make the ruling in the case.

Major Ryan states that he has reason to believe that the young man who took the machine to ride to Churubusco to see his brother will have to be returned. He cites an instance which he experimented himself which leads to entertain this belief.

The major states that a member of his recruiting party after war was declared was charged with failure to support his wife and he was given orders from the war department to turn the man over to the civil authorities.

It is expected that the war department will answer the query by Thursday morning and Prosecutor Emrick is awaiting the answer in order to determine his course of action.

RELIGIOUS OBJECTORS WILL BE CERTIFIED

County Board Receives Notice That They Are to Be Sent as Non-Combatants

The latest instructions received by the county conscription board relating to the draft is that members of recognized religious sects are to be drafted, providing they come up to the other requirements. They will be sent to the mobilization camps and will make up a part of the quota from the district from which they come. They are to be assigned to duty in a capacity declared by the president to be non-combatant. The orders came from Jesse Eschbach, state conscription agent.

The men were eight or ten of the men called from the county who filed affidavits asking exemption on religious grounds, and these men will be certified by the county board as part of the quota from that district.

Summons will be sent out to a new list of men Wednesday morning as the county quota is not nearly complete. The county board is now acting on the affidavits which were filed last week, and will send notices and badges to those whose exemption claims were granted.

WOMEN NEXT TO REGISTER

Council of Defense Getting Ready to List Them for War Service.

MANY THINGS THEY CAN DO TO HELP

Date for Registration in Allen County to Be Determined Later.

All men of military age having been registered and all boys between the ages of 18 and 20 in the process of being registered, the next step to be taken will be the registration of all women for patriotic service which will be undertaken by the state council of defense under the direction of Herbert Hoover, United States food administrator. The registration was to have been started here Wednesday but owing to the fact that no notice was received such action will have to be postponed until preparation shall be made.

The object of enrolling the women is outlined by the women's committee on enrollment and standardize the work of women of Indiana along the lines of constructive patriotism, this effort being made to secure the registry of the women who are ready to volunteer their services in time of emergency.

Some of the questions which must be answered pertain to education, business experience, knowledge of foreign languages, activity in Red Cross, French relief or navy league, and present occupation. Women will be asked to designate what lines they are best fitted for service, whether school or welfare work, commercial, agriculture, industrial, medical and nursing, motor driving, general service, office work. Under each of the foregoing classifications there are many sub-classifications given so that nearly every able-bodied woman may find some place where she is fitted for service.

In connection with the enrollment cards bulletins issued by the food administrator were also received here. The bulletin urges strictest economy and food conservation along all lines, its principal admonition being to win the war by "giving your own daily service."

KICK AGAINST NEW MONAKER

Soldiers in France Raise Protest to Nickname "Sammy."

WEAK HANDLE FOR A FIGHTING MAN

Officers and Men Ask That Folks at Home Aid to Extinguish It.

American Training Camp in France, Monday, Aug. 13.—(Delayed.)—Not until the recent arrival in camp of certain American newspapers did the soldiers of the American expeditionary forces become aware that efforts were being made in certain quarters to fix upon them the name of "Sammy."

That name never is heard on this side. Within the past few days the correspondent of The Associated Press has been approached by great numbers of officers and men asking that something be sent home telling the people there how the standard-bearers of the American army really resent what they consider an inapt, undignified and irritating name.

All Americans resent it. It can also be stated that the resentment does not rest alone with the officers and men of the army, but that it extends to all Americans resident in Paris and in other parts of France, many having written in to say that they consider "Sammy" most unsuitable for men who have come to France seriously and earnestly to fight for the liberties of the peoples of the world.

"Please hit the 'Sammy' propaganda as hard as you can," said an officer of distinguished rank to the correspondent today. "The men and officers would be proud to have an appropriate nickname, but there is not one among us who thinks 'Sammy' is in any way suitable and it certainly is not desired."

"The name does not in any way suit a fighting man. We recognize, of course, that it is an effort to play upon the name of Uncle Sam, but who would think of calling Uncle Sam Uncle Sammy. It is ridiculous."

May Win a Real Name.

"Perhaps something we shall do will give us our proper name. Until that time we are willing to be known as just plain American soldiers willing and anxious to do our duty. We have gotten along a great many years without a national nickname and perhaps we can stand it a little while longer."

Westpointers particularly smile at "Sammy," for "Sammy" has always been a nickname at the military academy for innocents. "Pass the 'sammy' is an old table phrase."

Men of the rank and file have a picturesque way of expressing themselves generally on every subject, but the appellation "Sammy" called forth some masterpieces of rhetoric not wholly suited for cable transmission.

NO DEFINITE ACTION TAKEN

Building Committee of Y. M. C. A. Meets But No Decision is Reached.

MAJORITY FAVOR BONDING SCHEME

All Are Agreed That Plans for New Building Should Not Be Modified.

No definite action was taken at noon Tuesday at a meeting of the building committee in the office of Arthur F. Hall, in the Lincoln Life building, relative to the plan outlined Monday evening at a meeting of subscribers at the Commercial club, whereby it will be possible to start the new building of the Young Men's Christian association at once. The matter, however, was discussed at length, but no decision was reached as to proper and wise course to pursue.

Plans drawn by the architects call for an expenditure of $100,000 more money than is in the hands of the association, due to the increased cost of building material. It is expected that the plan to underwrite the deficit between the amount subscribed and the bids will be agreed upon and that actual work upon Fort Wayne's new Y. M. C. A. building will start within the course of a very few weeks.

Majority Would Build.

After much deliberation and consideration of the building situation, seventy-five business men, manufacturers and representative citizens of Fort Wayne voiced the unanimous opinion that the building committee of the Y. M. C. A. should proceed immediately with construction of the new building if twenty men could be found who could underwrite the deficit between the amount called for by the specifications. It was agreed that to stop now or turn back would be suicidal and inconsistent with Fort Wayne's development and growth to allow the Y. M. C. A. project to falter.

The fact that building materials, steel, concrete, electrical work were not declining, but that every indication pointed to a continual rise until the war is over and then probably for some time, was given as the leading reason for not delaying inasmuch as the reconstruction period after the war would be likely to last several years, during which time no decrease in building prices was likely to be felt.

Expert testimony in this regard was given by several builders of this city, who declared that if the building was their own personal project they would not hesitate to go ahead with it at this time in view of the fact that there is no relief in sight.

Every person present expressed himself as agreed finally upon two things; first, that the people of Fort Wayne should not be asked to produce another $100,000 to meet the deficit at this time, and second, that the building should be gotten under way as soon as possible. It was the opinion of those in the meeting that twenty men could easily be found to underwrite the bonds.

No Relief in Sight.

W. S. Shattuck, an architect of Chicago, said the same question was being asked every place in the country and not only in this country but Japan and China, the question being whether to build today or wait until tomorrow. He said that it was his personal opinion that the general prices would not be affected within five years. He said there was no relief in sight that his firm could see and that they were figuring on building projects in all parts of the United States.

In declaring that it would be wrong to put on a campaign to raise the deficit at this time Samuel M. Foster said that people do not know what is in store for them and that they should not divert their energy from the cause. He recommended the bonding project.

Several motions were made before the right one was put before the assembly and when it was put not a single vote was found to be against it. The motion was to leave the project in the hands of the building committee with the intention of starting construction at once if the right number of men can be found who will underwrite the bonds.

Among those present who spoke Monday night were A. H. Perfect, Arthur F. Hall, E. W. Peirce, W. S. Shattuck, Samuel M. Foster, S. F. Bowser, W. E. Mossman, S. B. Bechtel, C. H. Worden, Owen N. Henton, A. Z. Polhamus, H. C. Paul, F. S. Hunting, James M. Barrett, W. H. Scheilmann, E. E. Griest, Theodore Wentz, A. S. Boyd, Charles McCulloch, Albert E. Melching, Byron D. Angel, Dr. E. W. Dóez, W. E. Doud, A. G. Burry, George H. VanArman, E. W. Puckett, B. Paul Mosseman.

This refers directly to the so-called Paris economic conference which was followed by one in London where the effort was made to bind the belligerents on either side after the war to have practically no commercial relations with their late enemies.

Restore All Territory.

On the important question of the disposition of occupied territory and the territorial ambitions of the belligerents, the pope, by way of preface, admits that special cases might justify special consideration. But as a general proposition he feels that a proper basis for discussion would be the restoration at once of all territory now in enemy occupation that would involve liberation of Belgium, leaving not a trace of German control, political or military.

The same principle of unencumbered freedom in its full sense, he says, should prevail in regard to every power and nation. Not only must French territory now occupied by Germany be restored to France, he says, but, on the other hand, all German colonies which have been occupied by England, Portugal, Belgium and Japan should be returned to Germany.

Unredeemed Italy.

The more difficult question of Italy irredeemable, the pope thinks, should be examined in a spirit of conciliation and fairness and that a special consideration in the settlement should be given to national aspirations.

Likewise does the pope hold that the complex questions involved in readjustment of the Balkan states should be considered in the same spirit of equity and justice. He has especially in mind Armenia, the Balkans and Poland, and the intimation conveyed is that these questions can safely be dealt with by direct diplomatic exchanges between the belligerents once an agreement is reached upon the general principles of recognition of national aspirations and justice.

Had Early Knowledge of It.

The state department today acknowledged that it had received an official word of Pope Benedict's peace proposals before the news dispatches were received here. No official notice can be taken of it until the proposal is communicated officially. Whatever consultation is given it will be after the apostolic legation all knowledge of the pope's proposal was disclaimed. It was said the papal delegation had not transmitted it to the United States government and did not expect to do so. The opinion was expressed that it would come through a neutral government.

Within the entente diplomatic circle the opinion was freely and promptly expressed that the peace proposal was inspired by Germany and was an attempt to split the allies in a conflicting discussion of their war aims.

It was indicated that a peace proposal coming from the pope—the first actual proposal of the kind to come from the Vatican—would necessarily have to be considered carefully and deliberately and that an answer convincing of the world would necessarily have to be made.

May Be Teutonic Origin.

How far the peace proposal reflects the close relationship of the Vatican with Austria, whose earnest desire for peace, despite German influence, is well known, or how far it reflects the Catholic agitation for peace in Germany, no one here would venture to say. It was recalled, however, that leading Catholics were prominent figures in the recent peace flurry in Germany.

The extent of the state department's information does not indicate through what channel the proposal will be conveyed and gives no information from which an inference might be drawn as to whether it will come through one of the allied governments or through a dignitary of the church.

Officials were unusually explicit in saying that it could not be discussed until it came officially before the government and were emphatic in declaring that no statement whatever could be made as reflecting the official view.

If an inference might be drawn from the undercurrents which were started in official circles by the report, a trained observer would venture the opinion that the proposal is one which would be discussed in good faith by the allies, but that it does not meet their war aims.

Announcement that the Spanish ambassador at Rome had transmitted Pope Benedict's proposals to the Italian government, and the opinion expressed by the apostolic legation here that they might be delivered to the United States by a neutral led to the possibility that the Spanish ambassador here, Juan Riano, might convey them to the state department. The Spanish embassy's only information today, it was said there, had been received from the Associated Press dispatches.

Falls On Cold Ears.

Without advice of any kind from their own governments, the entente embassies were intensely interested in the Associated Press cablegrams from Rome. Diplomatic practice prevents authorized expressions of opinion for publication but it was apparent at once that the peace proposal falls on unresponsive ears, so far as the diplomats here are concerned. The entente representatives, without the slightest preference of opinion declared the proposal originated with Germany, using Austria as an intermediary with the Vatican because of the better standing of that great Catholic empire with the pope.

There was no disposition to ascribe any but the loftiest motives to Pope Benedict in accepting at their face value peace proposals emanating from Oklahoma Exhibit Car To Remain in City a Few More Days.

On October 15 to 31, inclusive, the government will sell 450,000 acres of the land belonging to the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indian nations at from $2 to $10 per acre. This unallotted land is taken over by the United States government and are acting as agents for the same, and are selling it out. This is the sixth and final sale of Indian government lands. Five sales having been made before by which hundreds of persons have become rich on account of the valuable minerals in these allotments, principally oil. Previous sales ran from $4 an acre up.

The same oil conditions exist as on all the other great oil fields in the same meridians. No oil operations can be started upon these lands until they have been placed in individual hands, thus insuring the government and the people that no corporations can lease or even buy this ground from the government. If they want it they will have to deal with the individual owner. This is the purpose of this Oklahoma exhibit car, to explain to all prospective people the full conditions of these public sales.

Visit this car at the Nickel Plate and Calhoun intersection and see what opportunities await you. This land does not have to be improved or settled on to get your claims whatever. The government gives you full guarantee ownership and you are to take the opportunity. For full display of products visit this car at once, as a very few days will see the chance gone. J. L. Wallace and assistants will explain fully all necessary points in regard to all the local advantages of this land. If inclined to be interested at all visit this exhibit car.

Vienno, but naturally the question was at once raised as to the proper division of responsibility between the central powers and the pope.

Not From Allied Capitals.

It was pointed out that it is important to know whether the proposals came full fledged from Vienna or Berlin or whether the pope himself framed them in the light of an understanding he may have acquired from the central powers. The entente diplomats agreed that the peace proposals did not come from any of the allied capitals. So far as Great Britain is concerned, it was said there has not even an intention of departing from its outlines disclosed in the public speeches of Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Minister Balfour.

The extreme element among the French socialists has never contemplated short of the return to French sovereignty of Alsace Lorraine, while so far as Italy is concerned, it is said here that the government would be overturned by the people if it consented to abate its demand for "Italia irredeemable," in involving the restoration of the Austrian provinces on the Adriatic to Italy.

Russia's Part Limited.

Russia's part in the proposals as outlined is very limited outside of her general concern for a speedy but honorable peace in conjunction with her allies, the reason for the omission for any reference to the Balkan question outside of Serbia and Rumania, leaving excluded any question of control of the entrance to the Black sea. However, the proposition to submit the future of Poland to "peaceful solution" attracts some attention in that quarter although also in a limited degree because Russia already has solemnly pledged herself to completely free Poland.

The entente diplomats here naturally looking to the reception of the pope's proposals by the American government recall with much satisfaction President Wilson's demand for "reparation from the central powers as a very significant and pregnant supplement to Mr. Balfour's demand for "restitution" and are certain it warrants the conclusion that there will be no disposition on the part of America to accept any terms of peace which could not be subscribed to by all of the other fifteen governments joined in the great war.

"Peaceful solution," with reference to the problems of Alsace-Lorraine, Trent, Trieste and Poland is generally interpreted in entente circles here to mean submission of those problems to arbitration. As such an arbitration would be impossible of attainment because practically all nations who might in ordinary time serve as arbitrators, are now interested participants in the war.

FIRE THREATENS THE LAU BUILDING

Defective Wiring is Given as the Cause of $1,000 Blaze.

Fire that for a time threatened the Lau block on the southwest corner of Calhoun and Washington street, about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, did damage estimated at $1,000, all of which is covered by insurance.

Defective wiring is given as the cause, the fire starting four or five feet west of the elevator shaft on the fourth floor occupied by the "Machinists' union and the Federation of Labor. The fire was not discovered until the building began to fill up with smoke, when one of the occupants turned in an alarm. By the time the department arrived huge clouds of smoke were bursting forth from every part of the fourth floor and it seemed that the building was doomed. Three companies responded.

The Machinists' union suffered the greatest loss, outside of the actual damage done to the building. The Knights of Columbus occupy the entire third floor of the building, furniture and paraphernalia in the rear rooms being slightly damaged. Water also found its way to the offices of Dr. E. M. Van Buren, on the second floor. As to the Rosenbach hair dressing parlors on the first floor, with entrance on Washington street.

TO THE AGED ONES! GREETINGS!

Of the many spectacles held at Robison Park, none so appeals to the heart as the annual Congress of Old Ladies. To stand in your presence, Venerable Mothers, is an unusual and an honored privilege. You are the Aged Ones of earth. You have lived beyond the allotted three score years and ten. Your lives have been rich in the living. Your memories are potent with joys and pleasures. With heartaches and sorrows. Your faces are beautiful with all the light of a fading day. You are standing on the edge of life, looking backward over a wondrous past, with all its hallowed memories. You are peering with eyes of faith into the great, joyful future. Venerable Friends! Robison Park will be honored by your presence. We hope that your coming will bring real joy and happiness to you. May the day be so full of pleasures, that it will live on and on in your lives—another link in memory's golden chain. May you find peace in communing with one another, in reliving the days that are gone, in recalling the sacred memories of the past.

Those of us who gather round you, will look into your faces, there to read life's lessons. Faces reveal the soul's great past—its struggles, its joys and its hopes. In yours, we shall see the joy of work and the happiness of real service. Your steps may be slow and infirm, your hearing dull, your vision dimmed; but your hearts are young. Your souls are eagerly looking upward toward God's great and wondrous TOMORROW.

C. H. WILLIAMS

The drapery weight of an unconfined bust stretches the supporting muscles that the contour of the figure is spoiled.

They are the simplest and most serviceable garments imaginable—come in all materials and styles: Cross Back, Hook Front, Surplice, Bandeau, etc. Banded with "Wahona," the rustless boning—permitting washing without removal.

Peoria Wins Final Game of Series and Chiefs Finish Long Road Trip

Opportune Hitting Off Allison Gives Distillers Third Straight Win.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 14.—The Chiefs closed a disastrous road trip here yesterday, the Distillers taking the final game of the series, 6 to 3, making it three straight over the warriors.

The game yesterday was a slugging match, Allison being on the mound for Fort Wayne, and Leclair for the locals. Long distance hitting was a feature, with four doubles, three triples, and one home run figuring in the scoring. Harper, of the locals, and Glickson, of the Chiefs, each got four hits. One of Harper's blows was a homer.

Getting away to a flying start the Chiefs took the lead by scoring one in the second on singles by Glickson and Roberts and Brown's error. After that, however, the warriors were kept under control until the eighth, when they added two more to their total, completing their scoring for the afternoon.

Allison disposed of the Peoria batters safely until the fifth, when they scored three, partly on clean hitting and partly on passes, with some loose fielding in. In the next inning, the Distillers added another on Harper's drive to left for a homer. Two more came across in the eighth, on two doubles, a triple and a single.

Tuesday is an off day in the Central league. The Chiefs will return to their own stampering grounds for a twoday stay, starting Wednesday. Grand Rapids comes to Peoria for a three game series.

White Sox AMERICAN LEADERS DRIVE FOR WIRE —RESULT HINGES ON TEAM WITH PUNCH IN PINCH. Red Sox

ROWLAND

BY PAUL PURMAN.

With October and the world series less than two months away the two American league leaders have settled down for the drive down the home stretch.

The outcome depends upon the club with the stamina to keep in the grueling race, the club which will win games in the pinches.

Only two games ahead, the White Sox must play much better ball at home than they have on the road and must at least break even on their next two road trips to hold their advantage.

Two games in August is not much of a lead with a team as close as the Red Sox in runner-up position.

The schedules are equally hard. Boston has a few more games to play away from home than Chicago and five or six more postponed games, giving Chicago a slight advantage in this respect.

Each club must still meet every other club twice, once at home and once abroad.

It is not unlikely the pennant will be decided in the two series between these clubs at Chicago and Boston.

If Chicago can take four of these six games and hold her own with the other clubs the Giants and the White Sox will figure in the first intersectional world series since 1919. If not, the east is again likely to hold its monopoly on the annual classic.

One of the significant things to consider when the possibilities of the two clubs are being measured is their work against each other in recent clashes.

It has been a matter of history that the Red Sox can come through in a pinch. This also seems to be the true of Chicago this year. In the last clash of the clubs at Chicago the White Sox won three, lost one and tied one. At the last series at Boston, after the Red Sox had won two games, the White Sox, thrown out of first place, came back and won the next two.

On the eastern invasion of the western clubs Boston showed much better. The Red Sox finished with a percentage around .650, more than 100 points ahead of the White Sox.

But in spite of this the White Sox managed to keep a lead of three games.

The White Sox will soon begin an

All-Star Central League Team Would Make Some Aggregation

Smith is Only Chief Worthy of Place on Mythical Selection.

Catchers—Smith and Huntington. Pitchers—Faeth, Haines, Carpenter, Kahler and Willis. First Base—Hunter. Second Base—Caveny. Shortstop—Caveny. Third Base—Aaron. Outfield—Walker, Edgington and Hauger. Utility—Alcock.

The selection of an All-Star team in the Central league this season is rendered a difficult task, for several reasons besides those which ordinarily enter into the selection of any all-star team. The things which usually enter into the selection of such a mythical team, such as batting averages, fielding averages, and so on, must be considered besides that other great factor, so often overlooked, namely, drain work.

Probably the thing that makes the selection of an all-star team in the Central a more difficult task this year than other years, is the fact that in most positions, competition is so keen for the honor of being the top-notch that the selection of one man is a difficult and delicate job. In some positions, there was marked mediocrity through the entire league, and even the selection of the best man would not make an evenly balanced team.

Outside of the pitchers, we believe there is just two men who have an undisputed and undisputable right to positions on the mythical team, without the keenest kind of competition. Harry Smith, of Fort Wayne, stands head and shoulders above any other catcher in the league, and Walker, of Springfield, ranks far ahead of any of the other outfielders.

First base is one of the positions made difficult to fill, because of the fact that there is no first sacker that is far enough above the others to warrant his absolute title of king of Central league first basemen. Mathes, of Grand Rapids is good, but has hardly played at first long enough for one to get a line on his ability. Kelly, of the Chiefs, is a good fielder and fair hitter, but woefully weak against left-handed pitchers. Hunter, of Muskegon, looks to be about the best of the lot. He is hitting .308, and fielding as good as the average.

Joe Evers has the call on the second base job. He is hitting .282 and is a great fielder. Besides all his good points, which appear in the statistics, it must be considered that Evers is performing on a tallend team. Carey, of Grand Rapids, and Callahan, of Peoria, are also among the best of the second sackers this year.

Second is Toss-Up. At short stop it's about a toss-up. Erubaker is hitting the ball at a .336 clip, but isn't such a good fielder as Caveny, who hits .281. In looking over the records, we see that Caveny has scored 57 runs, compared to Erubaker's 39, and that the Springfield man has nearly as many hits as the Muskegon man, but has been at bat more times. When it comes to final selection of a consistent, hard-hitting, clean-fielding shortstop, we believe the Springfield man has the call. Hobbs, of Dayton, is about the only other shortstop in the league who has shown championship form this year, and Hobbs looks the fight and staying qualities necessary in a big league player.

At third base, it is another hard question, with the selection resting between a hard hitter and one who does not hit so well, but gets everything in the field. Hoffman is hitting .305, but is a poor fielder. Mitchell is a good hitter and fair fielder, but Aaron, of Muskegon, in our judgment, should be given the place on his all-around ability. Cleveland, of Springfield, is also good.

In outfield, as we have said, there is one man who stands above all the other fly-chasers, namely Walker, of Springfield. He is leading the league in hitting and is a good fielder. Hauger is even an outfielder both, along with Edgington, because they are both good hitters, and above the average in the field. Mathes, of Grand Rapids, is good, but has been switched between first and the outfield. Miller, Harile and Kirby are the other outfielding stars.

Smith is without doubt the premier catcher. He hits around .350, is fast on the bases and has an excellent throwing arm. Huntington, of Springfield, is another good catcher.

On the pitching staff are included Haines, Faeth, Carpenter, Kahler and Willis. The latter two have been in the league but a short time, but both have shown sufficient class to justify placing them in a mythical team. Colman, of Waukegan, and several others are worthy and honorable mention. Red Alsworth, were he with a better team, would no doubt rank higher than he does.

GRIFFITH WILL ALSO SEND BASEBALL NEWS

Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington American league club, who has charge of the Bat and Ball fund from which the revenue is derived to send baseball paraphernalia to the American boys in the trenches, has also made arrangements whereby the soldiers in France will have all the baseball news that they wish, he having just placed an order for 500 copies of The Sporting News, the official baseball paper, to be sent to General John J. Pershing, United States Army, Somewhere in France.

When it was originally decided to forward baseball paraphernalia to the soldiers in France it was not planned to send baseball news, but on account of the persistent demand among some of the soldiers who do not wish to play, but who want copies of The Sporting News, they will receive them in the future. In addition to these papers which Mr. Griffith has ordered, J. G. Taylor Spink, publisher of The Sporting News, has been sending five hundred copies of the paper each week to Harry Kingman, of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. stationed in Paris, France.

THE PEST.

You hear him in the bleachers. In the grandstand he's a pest.

He has the knack of never Giving you a rest.

His voice is like a fog horn. His song is never new. As he hawks his pop and peanuts And steps all over you.

If you have a painful bunion If you have a cussed corn,

The popboy's there to find it As sure as you are born.

MORE MINORS FALL—MAJORS MAY BE ASKED TO HELP

The minor league situation continues to grow worse.

There is scarcely a minor league in the country which is making money. Most of them are losing it in large gulps.

The Central association is the latest to hit the rocks and two or three others are tottering on the edge of the financial precipice.

Two cities in the Western league, one of the strongest of the minors, have been compelled to give up their franchises on account of lack of support.

The Three-Eye league, the South Atlantic league and the Northwestern league are among the others which have already gone under.

Many others of the smaller Class C and D organizations have been unable to stand the strain of war times.

It is understood that the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues is considering taking strenuous action to avert further failures.

The national commission may be called upon to help the minors next season, but unless the whole structure of minor leagues is threatened it is not likely any action will be taken.

In that case, however, the commission might act. The major leagues are dependent upon the minors to no small degree for players and to keep up a nation-wide interest in the game and the big league moguls would not be likely to watch their demise with equanimity.

NEW TENNIS STAR IN CALIFORNIA

California, the home of Maurice McLoughlin, William Johnson, May Sutton Bundy and many other tennis stars, has produced a youngster who may be as great as any of the others.

In recent matches on the coast the old-timers were surprised to find a youngster called "Eabe" Batkin was eliminating player after player in sensational style.

In the semi-finals he easily defeated Van Dyke Johns, who defeated Johnson last year. This caused the galleries to pay particular attention to the youth.

In the finals he was matched against Willis Davis, national clay court champion, who was almost an unanimous choice to win. Batkin, however, upset the dope by defeating the champion in straight sets.

CORN TAKES SUDDEN DROP ON LOCAL MARKETS

Wheat and Oats Markets Are Also Much Weaker—Receipts Heavy.

The markets Tuesday morning were characterized by a marked weakness all along the line, this being especially noted in corn, which dropped to the lowest mark for several months. The price obtained on the city scales being $1.75 to $1.90 per bushel. Six loads were weighed at the city scales. Oats, also, shared in the depression, dropping back to 60 and 65 cents per bushel. Receipts were also heavy on the oats market, fourteen loads being weighed on the city scales. Nine loads of new hay were weighed, selling for $11 to $12 per ton. Two loads of the old hay brought $15 per ton. Wheat is noticeably weaker, local millers quoting a price of $2.10 to $2.12 for the grain Tuesday morning. Flour also shared in the depression in the wheat market, dropping 60 cents on the barrel.

WOMAN MAY NOT RECOVER

Condition of Stena Radich, Stabbed by Admirer, is Extremely Critical.

TWO WITNESSES

HELD BY POLICE

Steve Boschick Makes His Escape Following Quarrel With Woman.

Carl Johnson, 1312 Lafayette street, and John Gegas, Detroit, both foreigners, are being held by the police as witnesses in the stabbing of Stena Radich, 1312 Lafayette street, early Tuesday morning by Steve Boschick, 38, of Barborton, Ohio. Boschick escaped and is still at large while the police are scouring the city and have notified other cities to which Boschick may have escaped.

Miss Radich, who is young and pretty, it is said among the foreigners of the district, was the victim of an unfortunate love affair unreciprocated by her. Boschick came to Fort Wayne Sunday to pay attentions to Miss Radich who did not look favorably upon his suit which resulted in the stabbing. Miss Radich is at St. Joseph's hospital where her condition is said to be critical with some hope for recovery. Both Boschick and Miss Radich are Austro-Hungarians and have been acquainted for some time, according to witnesses in the neighborhood.

In a preliminary hearing in police court Tuesday morning, both Johnson and Gegas were held under a bond of $500 until Saturday, August 18. Johnson said that he merely helped the police with Miss Radich into the ambulance and that he did not actually see the sun just came here from Detroit and that he was unacquainted in the city.

KAISER EXEMPT FROM SERVICE IN U. S. ARMY

They may have taken the Kaiser out of the spelling books in the Chicago public schools but Kaiser is still in the United States navy, where he is likely to remain for some time unless the war is declared off or something else unforeseen occurs. The Kaiser referred to has no such appendage to his name as Wilhelm II. No indeed, he is William Henry Kaiser, and his address is not Berlin, but 722 Colerick street, Fort Wayne, Ind.

He was drawn in the draft for Uncle Sam's new national army right down near the first. He claimed exemption and got it, too, for the very good reason that he is a member of the United States navy and one of the boys whom Uncle Sam and Fort Wayne are proud to claim.

Kaiser is twenty-three years of age and has enlisted in the navy.

Today's Beauty Hint

It is not necessary to shampoo your hair so frequently if it is entirely and properly cleaned each time by the use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers is one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair and may be enjoyed at very little expense, by dissolving a teaspoonful of cantharox, which can be obtained from any druggist, in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This when rubbed into the scalp and onto every strand of hair, chemically dissolves all impurities. It is very soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to both scalp and hair. After rinsing out the lather so created, you will find the scalp is fresh, clean and free from dandruff, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Advertisement.

AMERICAN BLUE JACKET'S BODY WASHED ASHORE

Queenstown, Aug. 14.—The body of an unidentified American blue jacket, about thirty-four years old, was washed ashore here yesterday. Keys tied around his neck bore the letters "U. S. N." An investigation is being made by the American consulate.

THE TEN OLDEST WOMEN

Ten imported, embossed boxes, very beautiful in design and coloring, filled with something very dear to every old lady's heart, will be presented to the ten oldest women present at Robinson park on Woman's day. One of these boxes, filled with chocolates, was given to an old lady one day in April. She ate very little of the candy and the giver asked her why. She replied that candy disturbed her. "What would you like above everything else in the box?" was asked her. With a glow on her dear old cheeks and a sparkle in her expressive eyes, she whispered a tiny little word in the giver's ear. One of these boxes will be sent to this precious old lady on Woman's day, and ten boxes, exact duplicates, will be presented to the ten oldest women who attend the Congress. This particular old lady is the writer's own mother. She hoped to come to the Congress this year, but she is too feeble to undertake the journey and the distance is too great. She always wants to know all about it and never tires of its story.

Dr. Eyer's Rheumatic Remedy is as near a specific for rheumatism as any drug known to the medical profession. Contains no alcohol or opiates in any form, and is as near a specific for rheumatism as quinine is for ague. For sale at Meyer Bros. 4 Stores.

For Women Who Serve Their Country By Doing Men's Work

With women standing ready to fill places of men who have answered the country's call, comes the demand for suitable clothing. The feminine dress must be laid aside and sturdier garments, allowing utmost freedom of movement, must be supplied.

Here are stoutly made overalls of serviceable khaki in many models, to suit every demand. Some are complete, with blouse and trousers attached; others have bibs, and there is another style with straps over the shoulders.

We are showing the best line of these new garments in town. On sale at the house dress section, second floor.

NEW---The Official Uniform For Housewives

At last the American housewife has come into her own! She is now universally recognized as one of the most vital factors in the welfare of the world, and particularly in the conduct of our Food administration.

It is possible to distinguish members of every branch of woman's service through their uniforms, as for instance the Red Cross, the League for Woman's Service, etc., but how can one identify a woman member of the United States Food Administration? She wears no uniform which would signify the branch of the service to which she belongs, or in which manner she is doing her patriotic bit. But that is all changed now, for a clever designer has evolved the

"OFFICIAL FOOD SERVICE UNIFORM."

This is a natty, neat affair, made in official gray-blue chambray. The long, round collar, the detachable cuffs and the cap are of white pique. The uniform is double-breasted and has two slits through which the belt is drawn. The cuffs are fastened with large pearl buttons. Each official uniform has two shields of service—one on the left sleeve and the other on the cap. The uniform can be worn either as a dress or over another garment.

HAD NOT REGISTERED.

Jack Gray, Calumet, Mich., was arrested here Tuesday morning, on a charge of loitering. He was turned over the county sheriff, who will take him before the United States commissioner. Gray admitted that he had not registered but said that he was not of age.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT STARTS.

Boston, Aug. 14.—Malcolm Whitcomb, former national singles tennis champion, and his brother, H. H. Whitcomb, were scheduled to play F. B. Alexander and H. A. Throckmorton in the national patriotic lawn tennis doubles tournament today. The women's singles and mixed doubles also were started.

"We Are Growing Very Old, Dear"

Della Williams Paine, who wrote the words and music of the patriotic song, "Hooray for Uncle Sam," which will be taught to school children, both in Toledo and Fort Wayne, has written two new songs, especially for the Old Ladies' Congress. After witnessing Emma Dunn's performance in "Old Lady 31," Mrs. Paine wrote: "We are growing very old, dear." In this song the aged husband, Abe, is supposed to be talking to his lovely old wife Angie. The title of the second song is "Dear Old Quaker Lady," and the singer is supposed to be a mischievous lad of the neighborhood, whose heart has been completely won by this old lady, who says thee and thou. Both these songs will be sung by Wilmuth Paine at the Old Ladies' Congress at Robison park tomorrow.

What About It? Oriental Queer or Occidental?

The following letter was written by a Chinese to the editor of the San Francisco newspaper. It rather tends to show that, while the "heaven Chinese" may be peculiar, his brother human, the white man, may have a few idiosyncrasies of his own.

The letter reads:

The Editor—Sir: I am already born here in San Francisco by Chinese parents, so also am well qualified to speak of what I see and hear. The other night I attended a banquet (after the banquet) to hear illustrious speakers speak on "Conservation." On the table before which the sitters sat to listen to the speakers speak, were evidences of wine that was drunk at the banquet and each (or nearly so) listener was smoking an expensive cigar or cigarette. Now then, one of the speakers, after sipping some wine, wheat bread and meat for two days a week so as to conserve the food of this country. How funny it seemed to an Oriental mind—this sort of reasoning. Millions spent in the manufacture, distribution and consumption of alcoholic drink and narcotic tobacco, the devotees of which fill eventually the madhouse, the jail or the grave, and not a word said in favor of abolishing these evils. The governor of the state was there also.
